Nothing in this checklist shall relieve the builder from complying with all applicable laws and codes.

Directions for use:

- Prepare detailed construction plans.
- Fill out checklist according to plans.
- Submit to plans and checklist to developer for approval.
- Communicate all changes with developer in a written manner during construction.

By signing and submitting the above checklist and respective plans to the developer, the owner and builder agree to perform the actual construction in a manner consistent with the submitted information. The owner and builder further agree to notify the developer of any proposed changes and or deviations in the scope of the work prior to commencing on the proposed change. All communications initiated by the owner or builder shall be written and reviewed at the developer's convenience. The owner shall allow adequate time for this process.
